Bob is the Broker/Owner of Donegal Real Estate in Marietta. He is also a State Certified Appraiser for Residential and Commercial Properties as well as a former American History teacher, who taught at Columbia High School.

Bob successfully has combined these two professions and has written several courses on Historic Residential Architecture. He also offers these courses to appraisers and realtors.

Join us for the evening as Bob identifies architectural styles and features found in Wrightsville, and our local historians, Bonita Emenheiser and Lisa Burk, provide some related tidbits.
